

The Honors Legal Scholars Program at Florida State University

Gain early admission into law school

Become a member of the law school community as an undergraduate student. Learn about law school and the legal profession. Meet with professors, observe law classes, and shadow current students. Attend law school events and lectures. Gain access to information about opportunities for FSU law students and graduates. Get a head start on your career as an attorney.

Applying for admission to the Honors Legal Scholars Program

Current FSU Honors Program students are eligible to apply. Apply early and not later than April 1st. Applicants will be selected for this prestigious program on a competition basis.

Interested in law school?
Begin preparing today.

Honors Legal Scholars will be automatically admitted to the FSU College of Law provided that they:

- (1) complete an FSU law school application
- (2) have a high LSAT score of at least 161 and an undergraduate GPA of at least 3.6, and
- (3) prior to matriculation at the College of Law, have a bachelors degree and a record that reflects the fitness of character to study law

More Information:

For more Information regarding the Honors Legal Scholars Program Information, contact the FSU Honors Program at (850) 644-1841, or online at honors@fsu.edu.

For information about the FSU College of Law, visit www.law.fsu.edu.