Honors Legal Scholars

The Florida State University College of Law has joined forces with the Honors Program to create a professional-track program available, on a highly competitive basis, to a small number of motivated honors students. Both incoming first year students and current honors students may apply. Honors Legal Scholars benefit from becoming a part of the College of Law community while earning their bachelor's degrees.

Honors Legal Scholars gain experience and knowledge through educational activities as well as social gatherings and can take advantage of the following:

- Pre-professional advising
  - Access to law school professors, law students, and alumni
  - Opportunities to tour the College of Law and to observe a law class
  - Access to special law school events and lectures

AUTOMATIC ADMISSIONS TO THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF LAW

Students in the Honors Legal Scholar program can become eligible for automatic admission to the Florida State University College of Law if they meet certain criteria. To qualify, they must submit a complete Florida State University College of Law application by the Priority Deadline during the application cycle to which they desire to matriculate AND meet the criteria outlined in the Honors Legal Scholars Handbook published the year they are accepted into the Honors Legal Scholars Program.
